

Made in Luxembourg Week at Word Expo in Dubai

From November 1st to November 6th 2021

The Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce has invited 12 companies manufacturing products “made in Luxembourg” to participate as co-exhibitors in the pavilion of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg at the World Expo in Dubai from November 1 to 7, 2021. The week of All Saints’ Day will be dedicated to these labelled companies and the project is called “Week Made in Luxembourg.

The Chamber of Commerce would like to revive the pavilion: successively and based on a rotating system, each co-exhibitor will not only promote the “Made in Luxembourg” label, but also his activities and products.

AERODESIGN
Upcycling becomes Art

Aero-Design, 1-3 November 2021

The two partners imagined, created and developed a concept of aeronautical upcycling unique in Europe. Today, the creations are divided into three families: sculptures and trophies created to measure, usefully elegant furniture and ingenious business gifts that have the particularity of being as unique as they are meaningful, all made from original aircraft parts.

ARTICHOC
WORLDWIDE

ArtichocWorldwide, 1-3 November 2021

ArtichocWorldwide is a dynamic brand melting art and fashion, creating new dimensions for the art and accessory world. Artichoc's carefully hand-crafted creation is turning original art into fashion must-haves. It is not simply a line of one of a kind luxury bags, it is an artist's implementation in handbag form giving the ability to carry a unique individual piece of art.

The Dubai 2020 limited collection representing the emblematic "red lion" of the Grand Duchy is created of an original painting from Luxembourg students. Every single handbag is a unique piece of art and its shape, created for the world exhibition, is leaning on the architectural design of the Luxembourg pavilion.

Luxlait, 4-6 November 2021

For more than 125 years, Luxlait offers a wide range of high quality and ethically irreproachable dairy products. The milk, of Luxembourg origin, is collected by Luxlait tankers from human-scale farms and then transported to the dairy where it will be processed into products such as milk, cream, butter, ice cream, fermented milk, cheese, dairy drinks and niche products from around the world.

Controlling all stages of the production chain allows Luxlait to guarantee its consumers flawless traceability. Luxlait meets the most stringent international requirements of the agri-food industry, which has earned it ISO 22.000, IFS Food, BIO, halal and kosher certification. In order to meet the growing expectations of its consumers, Luxlait decided a few years ago to redefine its corporate values : high quality, eco-responsibility, agricultural cooperative, animal welfare and sustainability.
